TO DYNAMITE PRESIDENT.

Warning Sent to The Attorney-General of a Secret Order.

CALLED "PATRIOTIC LEAGUE."

Has its Headquarters in New Mexico and is Said to Be Growing Rapidly--Arming Themselves.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Wiley Childers, district attorney of the United States for New Mexico, has warned Attorney-General Griggs that a secret organization known as the American Patriotic League is gaining headway in that region. The oath of the order provides that each member shall equip himself with a rifle and be ready for any emergency. Each is pledged to proceed on orders to accomplish the death of the President and Cabinet by the use of dynamite. Part of the programme of the order is to become enlisted in the National Guard.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor-Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Feb. 5, '98.

The annual report of the comptroller of the currency for 1897 shows that The National Bank of High Point, N. C., has larger deposits than any other National Bank in the state.

Charley Mills left this morning for Goldsboro on business.

A letter received this morning by Rev. J. R. Seroggs from Trinity College, Durham, states that his son James received the highest honor in the examination last week. High Point feels proud of him.

Miss Eliza Fisher left last night for a visit to her brother, Charles Fisher, in South Carolina.

George S. Bradshaw arrived in the city this morning on the south bound train.

W. T. Parker, of Archdale, passed through this morning en route to Guilford College to take in the X-ray lecture tonight.

Miss Henryanna Hackney, an efficient teacher of the graded school, left this morning for her home, at Guilford College, to attend the lecture there tonight.

There is talk here of turning the Anchor Warehouse into a cotton mill.

Oscar Merideth fell out of the dray of Ingram's beef market yesterday, and the hind wheel ran over his head, cutting a severe gash.

MISS BERTA LINDSAY DEAD

WAS A DAUGHTER OF ONE OF REIDSVILLE'S FOUNDERS.

Criminal Court Docket Finished and Civil Taken Up—Important Case.
Advanced Sale of Seats.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Reidsville, N. C., Feb. 5.—Miss Berta Lindsay died here last night about 9 o'clock. She had been suffering from consumption for some time. She was a daughter of the late William Lindsay, who was one of the founders of Reidsville. She was one of the most popular young ladies of the town and was about twenty-five years of age. She was buried this afternoon at three o'clock.

The Criminal court docket, Judge Coble presiding, was finished here today, and the civil docket will be taken up and will claim the attention of the court next week. One very important case is that of H. W. Fries, receiver, against the Hermitage Cotton mills. An array of prominent legal talent will do battle in the case, and many of the leading milling men of the state will be present at the trial.

The advance sale of seats for the Veteran Corps Band, which appears here tonight is large, and indicates that they will be greeted by a full house.

HIT WITH A POKER.

Method of Persuasion in Vogue at the Gas Works.

Just after the show last night Dave Monroe, a colored individual slightly under the influence of whiskey, wandered into the gas house, from which he was repeatedly ordered, but refused to leave.

John Jennings, an employee of the gas works, becoming weary of too much talking, persuaded him gently with a poker, inflicting an ugly wound on the forehead.

It seems Monroe wandered about after being struck, in a dazed condition, until he was found by Officer Pearce about 2 o'clock this morning and taken to Dr. Michaux's office, then to Dr. Turner's office, bleeding profusely all the while.

Dr. Turner examined and dressed the wound, which he does not consider serious. He was struck just in the edge of the hair with the sharp point of the poker, which ranged downward over the left eye, severing the temporal artery. Monroe fainted from loss of blood after the wound had been dressed.

Denies the Report.

In regard to the Washington report that he would resist the supreme court Governor Russell says:

"The statement accredited to me in regard to remarks concerning resistance to the order or decree of the supreme court of the United States is unqualifiedly false and has not even the shadow of a foundation, and was manufactured by my enemies to injure me and my appointees."

AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Corliss Will Substitute For The League Bill.

EIGHT HOUR BILL REPORTED.

Bill Will Probably Pass--Director Joseph Smith of the Bureau of American Republics Dead.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Representative Corliss, of Michigan, whose immigration measure was incorporated in the legislation which passed the last Congress but was vetoed by the President has prepared a substitute for the Lodge immigration bill, which he will offer. It provides for the exclusion of foreigners only in the case of mental or physical incapacity.

JOSEPH P. SMITH DEAD.

The State Department received a telegram this morning announcing that Joseph P. Smith the director of the Bureau of American Republics had died at Miami, Florida, at 10:40 this morning.

EIGHT HOUR BILL REPORTED.

The House committee on labor reported favorably the eight hour bill introduced last week. It is thought more than probable that it will pass the House next week.

SUGGESTS A CAVALRY TROOP.

Thinks one Would be Popular and a Good Advertisement.

A prominent young business man in discussing the needs of the town this morning suggested that a cavalry troop, if once organized, would be popular and would be one of the best possible advertisements of the town. He said that there is not in the whole State a single troop of cavalry though most of the towns except Greensboro have infantry troops. There is very little fun and a good deal of work in an infantry troop while cavalry drill is good exercise, is amusing and forms an excellent riding school. A good many young men here either own horses or are able to own them while those who are not could get them from the stables reasonably, by special arrangement. A cavalry troop in togs of war makes an exceedingly striking appearance. It would be well for the young men of the town to think the suggestion over.

Accommodation.

Just as Capt. Stagg gave the signal for "all aboard," and everything was in readiness for the Winston train to leave this morning, a traveling man just in from Madison rounded the corner of the baggage room, yelling to the Captain to hold his train until he could get his ticket. The accommodating Captain held the train, the ticket was secured and G. O. Goodman left for home.

Pupil's Recital.

An enjoyable recital was given by some of the pupils of the Brookmann School of Music last night. There were rendered piano selections by Misses Nora and Lizzie Baisley, Virginia Brown, Janita Cooper, Kate Bradshaw and Lynne Garrett. Violin numbers were contributed by Mr. Ney Forbis, Grace Brookmann and Hazel Irving aged six and eight, and Miss Lula Brooks who was accompanied by her sister Miss Kathleen. Robt. Glenn played a violin solo. Decided talent was apparent in all departments.

Fissures in the Earth.

Shenandoah, Va., Feb. 3.—The caving in of old workings in the Indian Ridge Mines this afternoon caused a subsidence of the surface that wrecked four double dwellings at Yatesville, one mile east of this city, occupied by eight families. The sinking was accompanied by a great rumbling noise, that terrified the inhabitants of the place. Men, women and children fled from their homes to the railway station, and begged to be taken to a place of safety. Fissures in the surface from two to six feet deep spread in all directions for hundreds of yards. The main breach is 100 feet deep.

Notice.

It is urgent that State and county taxes be paid at once. The money is needed to meet current expenses and state taxes. Will advertise land for taxes soon. Fair warning to all.

Very Respectfully,
J. A. HOSKINS, Sheriff.

THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT.

The Audience Pleased With the Veteran Corps Band.

The concert at the Academy last night was one of the best musical attractions that has appeared here. An excellent program had been arranged and the substitutions were rather in the way of improvement. Every selection was encored, often more than once. Several descriptive pieces were rendered very realistically; "Village Life" and "The Hunt" caught the crowd apparently.

The baritone solo by Prof. Noweck was superb and was enthusiastically received by the audience.

Miss Daisy Ogden, the little girl cornet soloist, was the favorite and at every pause in the music the applause would break out.

Messrs. Yearsby and Paul gave "Cupid's Dream" as a cornet and trombone duet. It was one of the best things of the evening.

The Flageolet solo by Prof. Fred Lax was very sweet and well executed. If any criticism might be offered it would be that more solos could be introduced with good effect.

The band came in from Wilmington yesterday afternoon and stopped at the Benbow. It went to Reidsville at noon where it appears tonight.

To Beautify the Battle Ground.

The $500 appropriated annually to the Guilford battle ground will not be used to build monuments or buildings. It is the purpose of Judge Schenck to have the grounds thoroughly ploughed and harrowed and then nicely sodded with grass.

Wants a Cheap Mileage Book For Himself and Family--New Match Company Organized.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Detroit, Feb. 5.—Judge Donovan of the circuit court today ordered the issuance of a mandamus against the Michigan Central railway. The suit was brought by Governor Pingree to compel the road to issue a thousand mileage book good for not only himself but his family for twenty dollars.

NEW MATCH COMPANY.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Feb. 5.—Another match company is preparing to oppose the Diamond Match Company. It is to be known as the Consolidated Match Company. It will have its plant at Decatur Illinois and will have a capital of $3,000,000.

Their Bravado Gone.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 5.—The commonwealth continues to pile up testimony against Sheriff Martin's men and is causing dismay. The court room is crowded and the deputies show no indications of their former bravado.

After Indian Burners.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Guthrie, O. T., Feb. 5.—Warrants have been issued for seventy three members of the mob that burned the two Seminole Indians near Maud. A large force of deputy United States marshals has been sent to make the arrests.

Tyre Glenn Resigns.

Tyre Glenn, the new postmaster, handed in his resignation as County Commissioner today. Indications are that G. Will Armfield will be appointed by clerk Ragan to fill the vacancy. Mr. Glenn has made a faithful, efficient and progressive officer.

Taking Definite Shape.

It is pleasant to know that the sentiment in favor of permanent road work is still growing. Once a section of stone covered road is put down, it will be the strongest argument in favor of good roads. The representative of a firm manufacturing rock-crushers is here today and will appear before the commissioners and endeavor to have them purchase one of his machines. When this is done and road building commenced, it will be a long step forward for Guilford county.

SIX DEAD IN THE RUINS.

Horrible Fate of Brave Firemen
This Morning.

A NARROW ESCAPE FOR OTHERS

The Third Floor Dropped From Under Them Precipitating Them into the Seething Furnace.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Boston, Feb. 5.—Six firemen are dead in the ruins of a large warehouse which was destroyed by fire this morning. Five others including Chief Egan were rescued from the debris horribly burned and otherwise injured and taken to the hospital.

The fire was discovered about four o'clock in the building occupied by C. W. Brent & Co., manufacturers of upholstering goods and bedding. The firemen entered the third story window to fight the flames below when the floor suddenly dropped precipitating them into the seething furnace below. The dead are Captain Vickery, Lieutenant Gotwald, William Welch, John Mulhern, Patrick Disken and District Chief Egan.

Mr. C. M. Vanstony had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanstony sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription, and in reply received the following:

HOGANSVILLE AGAIN.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The Hogansville postoffice matter has been brought before the public again in a singular way. Representative Griggs has taken horns with Representative Brigham of Pennsylvania, over a bill the latter has before the committee to punish any one who acts in the capacity of postmaster without a commission.

The bill is designed to fit the Hogansville case and in fact it was inspired by the trouble over that office.

Mr. Brigham is a member of the postoffice committee and he makes no secret of the fact that his bill is for the express purpose of throwing the business of Hogansville to the negro. It is said at the postoffice department that the salary of the negro postmaster is practically nothing on account of the boycott against him. Griggs is fighting the bill in committee, as he says that to meet this individual case the people of the whole country would be made to suffer, that any one who might accidentally stamp and mail a letter for the same person three days in succession would be liable to arrest and fine.

The committee had a meeting this morning and Griggs succeeded in side-tracking the bill. He is hopeful of preventing a favorable report on the measure altogether. If it ever gets into the house it will be sure to pass.

And so the Hogansville postmaster is to the fore again. The people of the United States are not to be given the promised rest. It is enough to make one regret that the postmaster was not sufficiently shot.

Of all the fool bills that have died in the pigeon holes of the various committees, Mr. Brigham is justly entitled to the distinction of having fathered the most idiotic. The august Congress of the United States is to occupy a whole day with devising ways and means to compel people to do business with one fourth class negro postmaster.

The postoffice authorities had a right to appoint the negro if they chose although it was an exhibition of very poor judgment to do so. Certainly the citizens have a right to mail their letter and get their stamps at any office they may select. To attempt to force them to the contrary is an act of petty tyranny that should not for one moment be tolerated.

As the dispatch says the bill will probably pass if it ever gets before the house. In no congress for years has there been so much that is at once ignorant and vicious as in the present August aggregation. Anything that can win a vote, anything that can distract the attention of the voter from the wretched record of the republican party upon all important questions, anything that can pander to the low prejudice of the northern voter can get a hearing before this Congress.

It is promoted by a Pennsylvanian of course; the only other place it could have started from would have been Massachusetts. So far as indications go all other states are civilized beyond that stage.

It is pleasant to hear from His Excellency that there are limits to even his capacity for playing the fool. He does well.

SATURDAY'S LITERARY CHAT.

[All books and magazines mentioned below may be had at Wharton's book store.]

The current number of Harper's is remarkable for containing a real good old-fashioned story, such as the magazines used to have ten or fifteen years ago. It is very refreshing after all the studies in verbal coloring, the unutterableness and the impossible character drawing of those stories that have filled periodicals for several years. The name of the story is "Roan Barbary," and it has a gentleman "who has seen better days," who has a surpassingly beautiful daughter, an old tumble-down family place, some famous race horses and two faithful retainers. There is in the story, too, a rich young man, an old miser, a race against time (by the beautiful young lady), a ball and an ideal ending. It is all very pretty, entertaining and novel just now. The other contributions average and quite ordinary.

A book that is now rather rare is Festus, by Phillip James Bailey. One may search the shelves of dozens of bookstores without ever running on a copy of it. The book can be had, of course, and is not so rare as to bring fancy prices, yet it is a book that not one well-informed person in ten has read. The text books on English literature say little of it and teachers less. Yet it is not only a readable but very remarkable book. It has more quotable phrases than any book we recall of equal size, unless it be a play of Shakespeare. The remarkable thing about it is the Shakespearean swing of the style and the metaphors.

Herbert Spencer's new volume of "Various Fragments" is announced.

Thomas Hardy is to issue another collection of his unpublished little stories. One of the most remarkable of these will be "The Romantic Adventures of a Milkmaid."

Bret Harte's forthcoming volume of short stories (Houghton, Mifflin & Co.) is as appears "Tales of Trail and Town."

Doubleday & McClure are to bring out a complete edition of the works by the late Henry George.

Aubrey Thomas De Vere, who was a contemporary of Bailey, and remembers the sensation the book produced, says in his recently published memoirs: "It has been given to few to achieve a literary reputation so early in life as Mr. Bailey established his right to be regarded as one of the greatest poets of the century. 'Festus' appeared in 1839, and was greeted with universal praise, the then anonymous author being hailed as the fellow of Milton and Goethe. Such famous literary men as Tennyson, Thackeray, Bulwer-Lytton and Professor Aytoun were unstinted in their commendation of the young poet's work, the late Laureate saying: 'I can scarcely trust myself to say how much I admire it, for fear of falling into extravagance.' The poem soon ran into many editions, at least eleven having appeared in this country up till 1889, when the Jubilee edition was published, and twenty years ago no fewer than thirty editions had been called for in America. This is quite a remarkable achievement for any work of poetry, and more especially for such a poem as 'Festus,' which requires serious study from one who would understand it, and is no stopgap for idle moments. Still, the knowledge of this ennobling book was more general 30 or 40 years ago than it is today—a fact which is greatly to be regretted, but scarcely to be wondered at in these days of scrap-py literature."

So far there have appeared but three verse and two prose translations into English of the "Nibelungenlied." Now there is added to these a metrical version by Miss Alice Horton. The text taken as the basis for this new translation is that edited by Bartsch from the MS. preserved in the monastery of St. Gall.

Poet Laureate Alfred Austin has rented for the winter months the Villa Cedri, in the upper valley of the Arno, about two miles from Florence, and it is said to be engaged on a Tuscan sequel to "The Garden That I Love" and "In Veronica's Garden."

If you have loss of appetite, constipation, headache, fainting spells, or are nervous, sleepless, excitable, melancholy or troubled with dizzy spells, Electric Bitters is the medicine you need. Health and strength are guaranteed by its use. Fifty cents and $1.00 at C. E. Holton's drug store.

WHY SHE WEARS THEM.

Dr. Mary Walkers' Reply to a Question by the Chinese Minister.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Dr. Mary Walker was one of the guests at the White House reception last night she having asked for an invitation on the ground of her record as an army nurse. She wore the finest frock coat of her peculiar wardrobe of men's attire. She endeavored to make herself agreeable to everybody, and among the first persons she met was Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese Minister, who has the characteristics of his countryman, Li Hung Chang, in asking many questions. His first remarks after Dr. Walker had presented herself as "Mrs." was:

"Why do you wear pants?"
"Why do you wear that gown?"
was the retort.
"Because it is the custom of my countrymen," replied Mr. Wu in his fine English.
"Well, Mr. Minister," answered Dr. Walker, "this is a free country, and we wear what we please."

There Is Nothing So Good.

There is nothing just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds, so demand it and do not permit the dealer to sell you some substitute. He will not claim there is anything better, but in order to make more profit he may claim something else to be just as good. You want Dr. King's New Discovery because you know it to be safe and reliable, and guaranteed to do good or money refunded. For coughs, colds, consumption and for all affections of throat, chest and lungs, there is nothing so good as Dr. King's New Discovery. Trial bottle free at C. E. Holton's drug store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

One-Cent-a-Word

[Advertisements inserted in this column at one cent per word for each insertion.]

WE HAVE in stock six or seven dozen pairs of shoes that are very slightly shorn; part of them have been on hand since last fall, some longer. For all practical purposes these shoes are just as good as if they had just come out of the factory yesterday, but a little of the new is off, and we don't want them in the store any longer. Experience has taught us that the quickest way to clear out stock of this kind is to cut prices and sell them for less than they are worth. We have also learned that a slight cut in prices does not have the desired effect, consequently we have priced these shoes so low that it will be worth any man's while, who cares more for comfort and durability than he does for style, to come in and look them over and buy a pair or two. Ask to see the price shoes advertised in The Telegram, so we can tell whether Telegram ads do any good, and oblige.

I feel it my duty to testify to the superior merits of "Rice's Goose Grease" as a cough cure. On Friday night the 7th inst I coughed almost the entire night. Cough syrups etc. failing to bring any relief whatever. On the following night I decided to test the virtue of your remedy by bathing my chest thoroughly with it and going to bed, and I tell you honestly I never slept sounder in my life. I take pleasure in commending "Rice's Goose Grease" to those who may be in need of a cough cure. Wishing you much success. I am Yours cordially, B. B. Walker, Mgr. Engelworth Store Co.

"Strange, 'tis Passing Strange"

That all who suffer do not use

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy

Hopewell, Mecklenburg Co., N. C. December 1, 1896.

Last June I was suffering terribly from some bladder trouble which was so severe and extreme that the physicians said an operation would have to be performed and the stone crushed. I reached it so much and had so much faith in Mrs. Joe Person's wash that I determined to try it first and see what it would do. I applied it three times a day and in thirty-six hours the inflammation subsided, the swelling and enlargement was reduced, and the stone passed without any trouble. The stone was large and no one can know except those who have so suffered what it was. I do not believe I could have stood an operation and believe I would have died had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Wash. If any one is suffering from this bladder trouble let them try it. My pain would be so great that I would have to be put in a tub of hot water to relieve those terrible paroxysms of pain. It made a perfect cure of me. Oh, that everyone could realize what medicine is within reach and try it, how much suffering would be relieved. Mrs. Person herself does not say as much for the Remedy as it deserves.

SPAIN'S COSTLY WAR.

She has Spent $240,000,000 in her Vain Fight Against the Cubans.

Madrid, Feb. 3.—Official information shows that the Cuban war, from February, 1895, to December, 1897, has cost the sum of $240,000,000, beyond which the arrears due from the Cuban Treasury exceed $40,000,000.

The government considers that it has enough money with which to face a war expenditure at the rate of $85,- 000,000 per annum until the Cortes meets in the middle of April, when it will immediately apply for authorization to raise more money, with the guarantee of the royal treasury, by-pledging further sources of peninsula revenue.

Harvard to Play Here.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 4.—The southern tour of the Harvard baseball team has been arranged. Beginning with the game with the University of North Carolina, the team will have a game with some college every week day

The list of games include the following:

April 16, University of North Carolina, at Greensboro, N. C.; April 18, Washington and Lee University, at Lynchburg, Va.; April 19, University of Virginia, at Charlottesville, Va.

Said he Stole Cleveland's Speech.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 3.—The House was in an uproar today over charges of plagiarism made by Representative Avery, a republican. Representative McNary, democrat, had finished a speech against a resolution favoring Hawaiian annexation, which was passed, when Avery remarked:

"It strikes me that it is very similar to a speech I have read, delivered by an eminent gentleman from Princeton, N. J."

The democrats grew angry.

presents a new ad to Telegram readers today. Mr. Tate is in the new M.
P. Publishing House building.

The yard force of the Southern were at work bright and early this morning on the platform, and in a short time the place looked as clean as a new floor.

We learn that the ladies of St. Andrews church will give a valentine party Monday evening Feb. 14th at the residence of Mrs. W. P. Bynum, on Arlington St. Further particulars given later.

A little coon created much merritment at the Academy last night by taking a prominent place in the gallery and imitating the musical director of the band. It was an excellent piece of comic acting and the little coon would make a hit on the stage as a 'Rastus.

A special train of 30 cars passed through the city this morning from Danville to Durham, loaded with leaf tobacco, from J. E. Parkinson, to be used in the manufacture of Duke's Mixture.

We regret to hear that Mrs. J. A.
Hodges of Richmond and R. Percy Gray were called to Asheville this morning on account of the sicknesses of their sister Mrs. George Heck, formerly Miss Genie Gray.

The Guilford Department Store, always progressive and up-to-date, presents a large and attractive ad on the third page of this paper today. Read every word of it, and if you don't find something that will interest you watch out for their next announcement.

The street sweeping brigade took advantage of the fit conditions this morning to administer a much needed cleaning to South Elm street. It is gratifying to know that when other towns are having trouble getting their streets cleaned, ours are looked after promptly.

A. P. Chaffin, manager of the Bogart Opera house called in the office this morning and stated that the performance of "Robin Hood, Jr." as given last night was merely ordinary vaudeville. He denied that anything improper occurred. The company plays again tonight. Others who saw the show say that it was "bum."

Some Sherwood Artists.

Lincoln Daily News, Lincoln, Ill.

The violin in the hands of Miss Davis responds to the will of its master in a manner marvelous to relate.
There seems to be no difficulty in drawing from that instrument music of rare quality and rich in melody. A violinist possessing the accomplishment of Miss Davis, is seldom met with, and wherever found, merits the praise of all.

The Evening Leader, Menominee,
Mich., says:

Miss Mary Davis, the skillful and attractive violinist was eminently a favorite, and was greeted by loud applause at her every appearance. She possesses great talent.
University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Mr. Frank H. Ormsby, tenor, was another artist new to Ann Arbor audience and the manner in which he sang "Salve di Mora" from Gounod's
"Faust" at once made him a favorite.
He possesses a particularly pleasant voice and used it most advantageously.

"Led Astray"

Miss Lillian Tucker and her excellent company will close their engagement here tonight, with the powerful emotional drama, "Led Astray."

Contrary to the usual custom, they have reserved their best play for the last. "Led Astray" is one of the most effective productions of that greatest of modern play wrights. Boucicault, and one whose plot is of such absorbing interest as to hold the attention of its auditors from start to finish. One important feature, at least to the ladies, is the opportunity the play affords for handsome and elaborate costumes, an opportunity which the ladies of the company will avail themselves of the fullest extent. The entire company will be included in the cast and it is said that their fitness for their respective parts is remarkable. A good audience will doubtless bid the company "au revoir."

A New Wagon.

Wingate Brothers, the bicycle and sewing machine firm, have just received from Cincinnati a beautiful new wagon which will be used for the delivery of wheels and machines. It will carry two wheels and five machines. This was necessitated by the constantly growing business of these hustling young men. They are preparing to meet the demands of their patrons when spring weather comes.

The City's Woodyard.

One custom which, if not incigenous to Greensboro at least is very prevalent, is wood sawing on Main street.
It is probably alright to pile firewood down on the street while two brawny sons of Ham cut it into convenient lengths for consumption but if there be any back lots the operation would look better there. It's purely a matter of taste and convenience.

Mantles, Mantles.

Have you ever thought how much a nice Mantle means to your wife or daughter and how in the first place it is the pride of the household furniture. Everybody that comes must see it. Second in fixing for an entertainment of any kind it is much more easy to decorate the room with a mantle of nice design and finish than a poor cheap shoddy one. You can find the right kind at McCLAMROCH BROS. Can put them in old houses as well as new.
